History Word Lab: Ancient Egypt

Level A2 · about 25 minutes · pharaohs, pyramids and the Nile

1 BRAIN TEASERS

Read the clue. Write the English word in the boxes.

1. I was a king of Ancient Egypt. People believed that I was a god on Earth.
2. I am a huge stone building with a point at the top. I was a tomb for a king.
3. I am a picture symbol used in Egyptian writing.

2 COOL FACT: LIFE BESIDE THE NILE

Ancient Egypt grew along the River Nile in the north of Africa about 5,000 years ago. Every year the Nile flooded, and it left rich, black soil, so farmers could grow food. The Egyptians wrote with pictures called hieroglyphs. Their kings were called pharaohs. They believed in life after death, so they made a mummy of the dead body and put it in a tomb. The pyramids of Giza were tombs for pharaohs. The Egyptians also made a kind of paper from the papyrus plant.

flooded = covered the land with water

rich = full of good things for plants mummy = a dead body that is wrapped and kept for a long time tomb = a place where a dead person is put
