EVERYDAY SERIES

Everyday Weather 1

Level A2

Sentence Flashcards

Ages 6–10

How to use this set

1. Show and read
   Show the picture. Read the sentence together, pointing to the green weather word.

2. Point and talk
   Use the side photos and facts. Ask the purple question and let children answer in full sentences.

3. Act it out
   Mime each weather: shiver for cold, fan yourself for hot, open an imaginary umbrella.

4. Review
   Do the worksheets after the cards: match the weather, choose what to wear, and write a weather forecast.

5. Daily weather talk
   Start each lesson: "What's the weather like today?" "Yesterday it was..., today it is..., tomorrow it will..."

Words (A2)

1. sunny
2. cloudy
3. rainy
4. windy
5. snowy
6. stormy

Grammar focus: Past & future: It rained / It will rain · because / so · comparatives: hotter, colder

Learning goals · Level A2

- Patterns: 'It was ___ yesterday / last night.' / 'Yesterday it was ___, but today it is ___.'
- Linking and comparing: so / but; warmer, darker, higher than.
- Skills: describe yesterday's weather and what you did; answer a 'why' question.

Story time · Max's weather day

sun

sunglasses

sunny

The sun warms the ground, so sunny days are warmer than cloudy days.

Bright sunlight can hurt our eyes, so we wear sunglasses.

Why is a sunny day usually warmer than a cloudy day?

Yesterday it was cloudy, but today it is sunny, so it feels warmer.

Bridge · sunny and cloudy

sunny

and

cloudy

Tiny story

It is sunny. Max plays outside. Then big gray clouds come. Now it is cloudy.

Yesterday it was sunny, but today it is cloudy.

Say it: It is sunny. Now it is cloudy.

clouds

hidden sun

cloudy

Clouds block sunlight, so cloudy days are darker and cooler.

When clouds hold more water, they get greyer and heavier.

Why do gray clouds often bring rain?

This morning was cloudy, so the town looked darker than yesterday.

Bridge · cloudy and rainy

cloudy

and rainy

Tiny story

It is cloudy. The clouds are dark. Drip, drop! Now it is rainy.

The clouds got heavier, so it started to rain.

Ask: What comes from dark clouds?

raindrops

puddles

rainy

When cloud drops get too heavy, they fall as rain.

Plants grow because their roots drink the rain.

Why do plants grow faster after rain?

It rained all morning, so I stayed inside and read a book.

Bridge · rainy and windy

rainy

and

windy

Compare

When it is rainy, water falls. When it is windy, air moves. Rain makes puddles. Wind moves the trees.

Rain falls down, but wind blows across.

Say it: It is rainy. It is windy.

kite

leaves

windy

Wind is stronger on a hill because nothing blocks it.

The wind pushes the kite up, so it flies.

Why is it windier on a hill than in a garden?

It was windy on the hill, so my kite flew higher than the trees.

Bridge · windy and snowy

windy

and

snowy

Tiny story

It is windy. Max flies his kite. The wind is very cold. Look! White snow. Now it is snowy.

It got colder and colder, and then snow started to fall.

Ask: Do you like windy or snowy days?

snowman

hat

snowy

Snow is colder than rain because it is frozen water.

It will snow again tomorrow, so I will wear my warm coat.

Why does it snow in winter but not in summer?

It snowed last night, so the park was white and I built a snowman.

Bridge · snowy and stormy

snowy

and stormy

Compare

When it is snowy, it is quiet. When it is stormy, it is loud! Snow falls softly. Thunder goes boom.

A storm is louder than snow because of the thunder.

Say it: Snow is quiet. Thunder is loud.

lightning

storm clouds

stormy

We see lightning before we hear thunder because light is faster than sound.

Lightning can hit tall trees, so we don't stand under them in a storm.

Why do we see lightning before we hear thunder?

Last night was stormy, so we stayed inside our warm house.

Worksheet 1 · What's the weather?

Draw a line. Then say why: "Yesterday it was ____, so I ____ because ____."

snowy

foggy

sunny

stormy

rainy

windy

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Thank you for learning with Everyday Weather.

Rain or shine, keep talking!

Everyday Weather 1 · Level A2 · Sentence Flashcards

